

DIRECTOR DISTRICTS

One board member is elected from each of the four director districts with an additional member being elected at large, as approved by the educational service district organization committee. At the time of election, the director must reside within the district he/she represents. Each director district is to represent approximately one-fourth of the residents of the Cashmere School District. The precinct boundaries and the number of residents in each director district are approved by the Educational Service District Organization Committee and are described as follows:
